Rejoice and Sing

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "Rejoice and Sing". It consists of two staves, a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom, both in a key signature of one flat (B-flat major or D minor). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The music features several triplet markings, indicated by the number '3' above or below groups of notes. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

I'll go, Let us re - joice, praise His Name, joy - ful - ly sing.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). It features a melody with a triplet of eighth notes marked with a '3' above it. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are placed between the two staves.

Sing the sto - ry of Je - sus' love.
King of kings is He,

The second system of musical notation also consists of two staves in the same key signature and time signature as the first system. The melody in the upper staff concludes with a final cadence. The lower staff provides the corresponding accompaniment. The lyrics are placed between the two staves.

635 The Day They Crucified My Savior

In Memory ... of that Sunday A.M., March 26, 1972, in the Garden of Gethsemane, looking across the valley to the hill of Calvary, when some 100 Christians, including the small church in Jerusalem, were alone with Christ in worship. Tears of inspiration freely flowed — in memory of a crucified and resurrected Savior — VEH
